Lesson: Isaiah 9:2-7

Psalm 96 (Responsive Reading)

L: Oh sing to the Lord a new song; sing to the Lord, all the earth!

C: Sing to the Lord, bless His name; tell of His salvation from day to day.

L: Declare His glory among the nations, His marvelous works among all the peoples.

C: For great is the Lord, & greatly to be praised; He is to be feared above all gods.

L: For all the gods of the peoples are worthless idols, but the Lord made the heavens.
C: Splendor & majesty are before Him; strength & beauty are in His sanctuary.

L: Ascribe to the Lord, O families of the peoples, ascribe to the Lord glory & strength!
C: Ascribe to the Lord the glory due His name; bring an offering, & come into His courts!

L: Worship the Lord in the splendor of holiness; tremble before Him, all the earth!
C: Say among the nations, “The Lord reigns! Yes, the world is established; it shall never be moved; He will judge the peoples with equity.”

L: Let the heavens be glad, & let the earth rejoice; let the sea roar, & all that fills it;
C: Let the field exult, and everything in it!

L: Then shall all the trees of the forest sing for joy before the Lord, for He comes, for He comes to judge the earth.

C: He will judge the world in righteousness, and the peoples in His faithfulness.

*The Prayers:

L: Let us pray for the whole people of God in Christ Jesus and for all people according to their needs.

Brief silence

L: Lord God Almighty, we come before You on this most holy night in awe at the wonder and majesty of the Incarnation. The Savior of the nations has come, and with joy we greet our newborn King. Let the proclamation of His birth sound forth throughout the world. Give to Your Church faithful servants to proclaim the good tidings of His birth. Give to Your people willing ears to hear & believe in Jesus, who is the Ultimate GIFT. Lord in your mercy,

C: Hear our prayer.

L: In the birth of Your Son, You have signaled the beginning of a new creation; though we still live in a world ravaged by sin, we know that the final victory is Yours. Watch over & keep safe all who are absent from their families this night as they watch over the well-being of our families. Lord in your mercy,

C: Hear our prayer.

L: In the birth of Your Son, You have visited & redeemed Your people. Continue to visit those who are lonely, sick, or near death. Let Your presence be a comfort to them. Give them perseverance until that time when You grant healing, relief, & deliverance to them. We remember before you [NAMES]. Lord in your mercy,

C: Hear our prayer.

L: In the birth of Your Son, You have made a new family out of all humanity. Teach us how to love one another as you love us. Grant that we may share Jesus, the GIFT beyond all gifts, with all people everywhere. Lord in your mercy,

C: Hear our prayer.

L: In the birth of Your Son, You have called people of all times and places into the Body of Christ that is the Church. We give You thanks for all the believers who have gone before us, especially those who have been with us during Christmases past and are now with You. Give us a sure confidence in Your promise of resurrection and eternal life, and bring us at last together with them into Your presence at the full coming of Your Kingdom. Lord in your mercy,

C: Hear our prayer.

P: Into Your hands O LORD, we commend all for whom we pray, trusting in Your mercy, through Your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord.

C: Amen.

Nativity of Our Lord (Year A): On this holy night we hear the familiar story of Jesus' birth in a stable filled with animals. Into a dark & lonely world the Christ-child came; not into a sterile maternity ward, but into the messiness of human life, to look at each of us face to face so that we might know the power of his forgiveness and mercy in our lives. God revealed the nativity news to some shepherds who then came to worship him. Having received the Ultimate GIFT, they returned home glorifying and praising God!

Lesson: Isaiah 9:1-7

Julie Steffenson

2 The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who dwelt in a land of deep darkness, on them has light shined. 3 You have multiplied the nation; you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as they are glad when they divide the spoil. 4 For the yoke of his burden, & the staff for his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian. 5 For every boot of the tramping warrior in battle tumult and every garment rolled in blood will be burned as fuel for the fire. 6 For to us a child is born, to us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder, and his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. 7 Of the increase of his government and of peace there will be no end, on the throne of David and over his kingdom, to establish it and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time forth & forevermore. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

L: The Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Lesson: Titus 2:11-14

Julie Steffenson

11 For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, 12 training us to renounce ungodliness & worldly passions, & to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, 13 waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, 14 who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness & to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works.

L: The Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Christmas Gospel Reading: Luke 2:1-20

Pastor Steffenson

P: The Holy Gospel according to St. Luke the 2nd. Chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

1 In those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be registered. 2 This was the first registration when Quirinius was governor of Syria. 3 And all went to be registered, each to his own town. 4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, from the town of Nazareth, to Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and lineage of David, 5 to be registered with Mary, his betrothed, who was with child. 6 And while they were there, the time came for her to give birth. 7 And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in swaddling cloths and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn. 8 And in the same region there were shepherds out in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. 9 And an angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were filled with great fear. 10 And the angel said to them, "Fear not, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. 11 For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. 12 And this will be a sign for you: you will find a baby wrapped in swaddling cloths and lying in a manger." 13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying, 14 "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among those with whom he is pleased!" 15 When the angels went away from them into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go over to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us." 16 And they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby lying in a manger. 17 And when they saw it, they made known the saying that had been told them concerning this child. 18 And all who heard it wondered at what the shepherds told them. 19 But Mary treasured up all these things, pondering them in her heart. 20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

P: The Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.
