PRAYERS OF THE CHURCH

A: Let us pray for the whole people of God in Christ Jesus, and for all people according to their needs;

a brief silence

A: Heavenly Father, you alone are the maker and owner of all that exists. May we, in our sinful pride, never lose sight that we are but part of your creation, and may our trust in your divine wisdom never waver, especially in the face of the troubles of this world.

Lord, in your mercy,

C: Hear our prayer.

A: God of all mercy, you are an ever present help in times of danger. Constantly remind us that though the world is filled with devils who threaten to devour us, we can stand unmoved, knowing that ultimately our help is in you, the maker of heaven, earth, and all that is. Lord, in your mercy,

C: Hear our prayer.

A: Your grace is sufficient. Your mercy is enough for us. May we never receive your gifts in vain. Instead, may they create in us not only a greater awareness of you alone as Lord and Master of the universe, but may this truly be the greatest news for us so that we cannot resist going to tell the world through of your great love in Christ Jesus; Lord, in your mercy,

C: Hear our prayer.

A: You have blessed this great land, O God, and we truly should want for nothing. In our wealth and abundance, may we never lose sight of your ever-present mercy that is needed by all. And when the storms of life pound against us, may we rejoice that you have control of those storms, and that in you we will gain the final victory; Lord, in your mercy,

C: Hear our prayer.

A: Father, there are many who are being battered by the storms of life, and so we also remember all those who suffer in mind, body, and spirit. Give comfort to the dying, strength to the weak, assurance to the sick, and aid to the injured. Especially tonight we pray for those who are in need, [Names] Lord, in your mercy,

C: Hear our prayer.

A: We ask, dear Father in Heaven, that you bless Fathers and Mothers, children and parents, every day. As we honor Fathers this day, may we collectively seek to fulfill our various roles in accordance with and by the example of your perfect love; Lord, in your mercy,

C: Hear our prayer.

P: Into your hands, heavenly Father, we commend all for whom we pray; trusting in your mercy, through your Son, our Savior, Jesus Christ;

C: Amen.

Psalm 107:1-3, 23-32—responsively

L: Oh give thanks to the Lord, for he is good,

C: For his steadfast love endures forever!

L: Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, whom he has redeemed from trouble, and gathered in from the lands,

C: From the east and from the west, from the north and from the south.

L: Some went down to the sea in ships, doing business on the great waters;

C: They saw the deeds of the Lord, his wondrous works in the deep.

L: For he commanded and raised the stormy wind, which lifted up the waves of the sea.

C: They mounted up to heaven; they went down to the depths; their courage melted away in their evil plight;

L: They reeled and staggered like drunken men and were at their wits' end.

C: Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress.

L: He made the storm be still, and the waves of the sea were hushed.

C: Then they were glad that the waters were quiet, and he brought them to their desired haven.

L: Let them thank the Lord for his steadfast love, for his wondrous works to the children of man!

C: Let them extol him in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders.

Thanks for worshiping with us this evening. Your presence is your gift to us. We pray that our Service of Word and Sacrament is a blessing to you. Sealed by the Holy Spirit and marked with the cross of Christ forever we are praising, proclaiming and practicing Emmanuel – God with us – in daily life! May the power of the Holy Spirit equip the saints for Witness in the world!

Blessed Father's Day to all our dads! The idea of Father's Day was conceived slightly more than a century ago by Sonora Dodd of Spokane, Wash., while she listened to a Mother's Day sermon in 1909. Dodd wanted a special day to honor her father, William Smart, a widowed Civil War veteran who was left to raise his six children on a farm. A day in June was chosen for the first Father's Day celebration, June 17, 1910, proclaimed by Spokane's mayor because it was the month of Smart's birth. The first presidential proclamation honoring fathers was issued in 1966 when President Lyndon Johnson designated the third Sunday in June as Father's Day. Father's Day has been celebrated annually since 1972 when President Richard Nixon signed the public law that made it permanent.

Prayer Time: Thursdays at Oasis Church from 11:00-11:30am in Pastor Dan's office. This is a small group opportunity for Emmanuel members to join members of Oasis in a shared time of prayer. Fridays at 9:30am—Ecumenical opportunity for praying for persecuted Christians around the world.

Women's Bible Study: "Practicing Resurrection!" Women of Emmanuel & their friends are studying Paul's letter to the church at Ephesus and practicing the gift of resurrection in daily life. Participants meet twice each month (Final Session: June 24) on Wednesdays from 1:00-2:30 p.m. Join us as we keep company with Jesus & walk wet with the sign of salvation upon us.

Men's Bible Study Breakfast: Emmanuel Men are meeting weekly on Tuesdays at 8 a.m. at Charlie's (1408 2nd. St. SW) for breakfast & a first look at the lectionary readings for the week. Bring a friend, sit at the feet of Jesus & practice being evangelical. Our next meeting is Tues, June 16. Our Bible Readings for our Mission Festival Service: Isaiah 52:7-12; Psalm 96; Acts 2:5-6, 14a, 22-24 ; & Mark 16:14-20.

Jonah 1:1-17 — Deliverance Belongs to the LORD

1 Now the word of the Lord came to Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, 2 "Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and call out against it, for their evil has come up before me." 3 But Jonah rose to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the Lord. He went down to Joppa and found a ship going to Tarshish. So he paid the fare and went down into it, to go with them to Tarshish, away from the presence of the Lord. 4 But the Lord hurled a great wind upon the sea, and there was a mighty tempest on the sea, so that the ship threatened to break up. 5 Then the mariners were afraid, and each cried out to his god. And they hurled the cargo that was in the ship into the sea to lighten it for them. But Jonah had gone down into the inner part of the ship and had lain down and was fast asleep. 6 So the captain came and said to him, "What do you mean, you sleeper? Arise, call out to your god! Perhaps the god will give a thought to us, that we may not perish." 7 And they said to one another, "Come, let us cast lots, that we may know on whose account this evil has come upon us." So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah. 8 Then they said to him, "Tell us on whose account this evil has come upon us. What is your occupation? And where do you come from? What is your country? And of what people are you?" 9 And he said to them, "I am a Hebrew, and I fear the Lord, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land." 10 Then the men were exceedingly afraid and said to him, "What is this that you have done!" For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of the Lord, because he had told them. 11 Then they said to him, "What shall we do to you, that the sea may quiet down for us?" For the sea grew more and more tempestuous. 12 He said to them, "Pick me up and hurl me into the sea; then the sea will quiet down for you, for I know it is because of me that this great tempest has come upon you." 13 Nevertheless, the men rowed hard to get back to dry land, but they could not, for the sea grew more and more tempestuous against them. 14 Therefore they called out to the Lord, "O Lord, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not on us innocent blood, for you, O Lord, have done as it pleased you." 15 So they picked up Jonah and hurled him into the sea, and the sea ceased from its raging. 16 Then the men feared the Lord exceedingly, and they offered a sacrifice to the Lord and made vows. 17 And the Lord appointed a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

2 Corinthians 6:1-13 — Ambassadors for Christ

1 Working together with him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain. 2 For he says, "In a favorable time I listened to you, and in a day of salvation I have helped you." Behold, now is the favorable time; behold, now is the day of salvation. 3 We put no obstacle in anyone's way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry, 4 but as servants of God we commend ourselves in every way: by great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, 5 beatings, imprisonments, riots, labors, sleepless nights, hunger; 6 by purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, the Holy Spirit, genuine love; 7 by truthful speech, & the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left; 8 through honor and dishonor, through slander & praise. We are treated as impostors, and yet are true; 9 as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as punished, and yet not killed; 10 as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, yet possessing everything. 11 We have spoken freely to you, Corinthians; our heart is wide open. 12 You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted in your own affections. 13 In return (I speak as to children) widen your hearts also.

L: The Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading: Mark 4:35-41

L: The Holy Gospel according to St. Mark the 4th. Chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

35 On that day, when evening had come, Jesus said to them, "Let us go across to the other side." 36 And leaving the crowd, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. And other boats were with him. 37 And a great windstorm arose, and the waves were breaking into the boat, so that the boat was already filling. 38 But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion. And they woke him and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" 39 And he awoke and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, "Peace! Be still!" And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. 40 He said to them, "Why are you so afraid? Have you still no faith?" 41 And they were filled with great fear and said to one another, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

C: Praise to you, O Christ.
