

The Emmanuel Epistle

“Praising, Proclaiming and Practicing Emmanuel—God with us—in daily life!”

Pastor’s Keyboard: “Discipleship: “No God, But One”

Jesus said, “I Am the Way and the Truth and the Life. No one comes to the Father except by me.” In the Book of Acts, St. Luke reminds his readers that there is “salvation in no other name than the name of Jesus.” Jesus is not just one of many options. Jesus is the exclusive WAY to the Father. He is God’s decisive self-revelation.

The name of Jesus is not simply one of many names for God. St. Paul reminds us that the name of Jesus is the name above all names. The One who emptied Himself and became obedient unto death on a cross, has been highly exalted. At the name of Jesus every knee will bow in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue will confess that “Jesus is Lord” to the glory of God the Father.

It’s the Season of Epiphany and God is manifesting His glory. In Christ Jesus, the LORD God Almighty reveals Himself as the only begotten Son of the Father from all eternity. Epiphany is a time for seeing and a season for enlightenment. God turns the LIGHT on and shows Himself to the nations! “Behold! I AM the Great I AM.”

Sitting on my shelf, for quite sometime now, is a book authored by Nabeel Qureshi, entitled, No God But One. I’m about halfway through this gold mine and I thought I would share some reflections with you. This book is not merely academic; it’s personal. Nabeel calls No God But One a “summary of fifteen years of research that wrenched my heart and transformed my life.” Nabeel was a devout Muslim who, by God’s grace, found his way to faith in Jesus. Praise God!

“The gospel is not just an answer that works; it is the only answer that will work.”

—Nabeel Qureshi

No God But One addresses two main questions: 1) What are the differences between Christianity and Islam? 2) Can we know whether Christianity or Islam is true? Christianity and Islam are not two paths to the same God. They present radically different views of God and salvation and only one can be true. So who is God, Allah or Jesus? Nabeel concludes: “There is no God but one, and He is Father, Spirit, and Son. There is no God but one, and He is Jesus” A final question concludes Nabeel’s book: “Is it worth sacrificing everything for the TRUTH?” Accepting the TRUTH comes with a price. Leaving Islam can cost you everything.

Nabeel was indoctrinated in the teachings of Islam. At the age of five Nabeel recited the entire Quran. At the age of 22 (2005), he became a follower of Jesus. He no longer believed the Shahada, the Muslim proclamation that “there is no God but Allah, and Muhammad is his messenger. Four years later, after graduating from Medical School, he left medicine to become an ambassador for Christianity & the Gospel.

Food For Thought:

“After thoroughly investigating the truth claims of Islam & Christianity, even while a Muslim, there was no avoiding the obvious truth: The evidence in favor of Christianity was far, far stronger than the evidence for Islam.”

Both religions, Christianity and Islam, teach that there is only one God. But the character and defining attributes of God in each religion is distinctively different. Why did God create humans? To share intimacy with them, or to test them. What does God think about people? Are they his children or his servants? How does God want us to live? Focusing on agape love, or sharia law? What does God tell us about the afterlife? To have joyful faith in his grace, or to anxiously anticipate unknown judgment? The Christian & Islamic view of God lend themselves to different answers.

Nabeel writes, “According to Islam, the way to paradise is sharia, a code of laws to follow that will please Allah and earn his favor. Sharia is literally translated ‘the way’. According to the Christian message, the gospel, the way to eternal life is Jesus. ... In Islam, sharia is the way, and in Christianity, Jesus is the way.” The way to life in one religion is a law, whereas in the other, it is a person; namely, the second person of the Trinity. Islam teaches that the fundamental problem of mankind is ignorance, and the remedy is sharia. Christianity teaches that the fundamental problem is sin, and the remedy is Jesus. In other words, God offers Himself in relationship, and that relationship leads to heart transformation. Allah is not inherently relational. Yahweh (LORD) is inherently relational (Matthew 22:37-38). The Quran rejects the relational aspects of God, saying that he is not a father (5.18) and not a son (112.3). The doctrine of the Trinity is “what makes God relational, [and] what makes his love eternal. It is how God can be in us through the Holy Spirit, while being over us as the Father, and suffering for us in the Son.”

Islam embraces the teaching of tawhid; i.e. Allah is absolutely one (monad). Muslims also believe in the eternity of the Quran—the Quran is the eternal Word of God; Allah’s knowledge or speech. Christianity, on the other hand, confesses the Trinity (three persons, one being) and believes that Jesus is the eternal Word of God (John 1:1-14). The Bible is the reason that Christians believe in the Trinity. The Quran is the reason Muslims deny it. Nabeel writes in his book, “The trinity that the Quran denies is actually tritheism, three gods: Allah, Jesus, and Mary.”

Muslims often say, “We respect Jesus, why can’t you respect Muhammad?” But what exactly do Muslims believe about Jesus? Islam teaches that Jesus was born of a virgin, was sinless, was a prophet, is Messiah, and will return again. Islam teaches that Jesus was the most amazing man that ever lived, except for Muhammad of course. Jesus cleansed lepers, healed the blind and even raised the dead. BUT Islam does not believe that Jesus is God; the Incarnate One; the atoning sacrifice for our sin! Christians believe that Jesus is Lord. He is God’s embodiment of selfless love, and saving grace. And so we sing: “Anthems be to Thee addressed, God in flesh made manifest.

Sadly, Nabeel Qureshi announced via Facebook on Aug. 30, 2016 that he had been diagnosed “with advanced stomach cancer,” the same day No God But One was published. Nabeel, at the age of 34, went home to be with Jesus on Sept. 16, 2017. Next month, I’ll be back with more insights from Nabeel’s book. Until then, let’s celebrate God’s Epiphany!

Confessing the TRUTH, Pastor Dave

“If truth doesn’t exist, then it would be true that truth doesn’t exist, and once again we arrive at truth. There is no alternative; truth must exist.”

—Nabeel Qureshi

“Would it be worth it to pick up my cross & be crucified next to Jesus? If He is not God, then, no. Lose everything I love to worship a false God? A million times over, no! But if He is God, then yes. Being forever bonded to my Lord by suffering alongside Him? A million times over, yes!”

—Nabeel Qureshi

Food for Serious Thought!

Rev. John Piper, in his sermon, “Doing Missions When Dying Is Gain” writes, “Golgotha is not a suburb of Jerusalem. Let us go with him outside the gate and suffer with him and bear reproach” (Hebrews 13:13). Lift high the cross, the love of Christ proclaim! St. Paul writes, “For me to live is Christ and to die is more CHRIST JESUS (gain)!” Amen!
