“Praising, Proclaiming and Practicing Emmanuel—God with us—in daily life!”

Pastor’s Keyboard: “Discipleship: Urgency & Opportunity”

The fierce urgency of NOW. There is no time like the present. He or she who hesitates is lost. Strike while the iron is hot. What’s the rush? We are Pentecost people, clothed with power from on high for bearing witness to the TRUTH. We are ignited with flames of fire and Spirit-ed with a mighty rushing wind for the proclamation of the mighty acts of God. There is salvation only in the name of Jesus (Acts 4:12).

“The fields are white for harvest, but the laborers are few. PRAY therefore that the Lord of the Harvest sends out more laborers into His harvest.” Jesus invites his disciples to earnestly pray lest human grapes die on the vine or crops wither and wilt in the fields. Perishing is serious business. Those who pray must be ready for a call & conscription into the cause of Christ! We’re talking about the harvesting of souls, not just the harvesting of crops in the field.

“For God so loved the world that God gave His only Son so that whoever believes in Him may not perish, but have eternal life.” The Son of Man came to seek and save the lost. Lost people matter to God. Sinners who repent bring overflowing joy to the angels in heaven.

This month I want to visit with you about 2 important words. Urgency and Opportunity. Urgency is a pressing necessity. Opportunity is a golden moment. A state of emergency means all hands on deck; necessity becomes everyone’s top priority. An opportunity invites the careful observer to act immediately lest a loved one bleed out. When opportunity knocks, open the door!

Of His own mission Jesus said, “For the Son of Man came to seek and to save what was lost” (Luke 19:10).

During the month of June, members of Emmanuel are participating in “Dinner for Eight”. The purpose of these dinners is to provide an opportunity for Christ-centered fellowship and conversation regarding our God-given future as a congregation (see p. 4).

Recognizing the urgency and opportunity of the Diet of Worms (April 18, 1521), Martin Luther gave this reply to Emperor Charles when asked to recant: “Since then your serene Majesty & your Lordships seek a simple answer, I will give it in this manner, neither horned nor toothed. Unless I am convinced by the testimony of the Scriptures or by clear reason (for I do not trust either in the pope or in councils alone, since it is well known that they have often erred & contradicted themselves), I am bound by the Scriptures I have quoted and my conscience is captive to the Word of God. I cannot and I will not recant anything, since it is neither safe nor right to go against conscience. May God help me. Amen.”

Jesus was criticized for healing on the Sabbath.

Summer is on the Horizon!

Graduation is in the air and summer break is almost here. May God grant each of us some restful vacation time. But don't forget to find some meaningful rest for your soul as well. Summer is not created by God so that wandering sheep may take a break from their Good Shepherd. Summer is an opportunity for God's people to invest in the gifts of Christian marriage and holy family. Watch for open doors and opportunities to introduce friends and neighbors to Jesus. Invite a friend to join you for worship at Emmanuel. When you're away from home, visit the Emmanuel Website and listen to a sermon or read the weekly bulletin. Stay connected to the Body of Christ. Blessed summer to you & yours!

Religious leaders asked, “What’s the rush?” If a person has been crippled for years, what difference will waiting a few more hours make. Jesus’ responds to their hardness of heart and hypocrisy. “The Sabbath was made for man, not vice versa.” When it comes to healing and salvation, Jesus believes that there is “no time like the present” (Luke 13:10-17). In John 9, Jesus heals a man born blind. When asked about “who sinned?” Jesus replies, “Let’s look for the glory of God.” What’s the rush? Jesus says, “We must work the works of Him who sent me while it is day; night is coming when no one can work. As long as I AM in the world, I, I AM the Light of the World.” The blind man not only gets his sight, but he also gets saving faith—he sees that Jesus is Lord! He gets saved! Praise God!

St. Paul tells his beloved Timothy, “Never lose your sense of urgency” (2 Tim. 4:2). When Paul tells Timothy to be ready “in season and out of season”, he is talking about KAIROS Time; i.e. opportune time. Scripture tells us to redeem the time because the days are evil (Ephesians 5:16). What are we doing with our God-given time/lives? Are we living boldly with a sense of urgency and opportunity, or are we potatoing on the couch and moving at a snail’s pace. By urgency I don’t mean frantic desperation or mindless haste, but rather “urgent care” in the name of Jesus.

Repeatedly, in the Bible, we witness KAIROS Time. In John 6, a boy strikes while the iron is hot and offers his sack lunch to Jesus. Two sardines and five barely loaves, blessed by Jesus, becomes a feast for 5000 plus. Jesus conscripted Peter and Andrew, James and John, “to follow and fish for people” and immediately they did so. It wasn’t a career choice, it was a calling. In the Book of Acts, Peter & Paul, Stephen & Philip, see an open door for preaching and they preach. Paul sees an idol on Mars Hill in Athens with the following inscription: “To an Unknown god”. Paul names what is unknown. While Martha serves, Mary recognizes an opportune time for learning, and sits at Jesus’ feet. In Luke 19, Zacchaeus gets a chance to see Jesus. He climbs up a tree and Jesus invites Himself into Zacchaeus’ home. “Today salvation has come into this house!” In Mark 10, a rich man asks Jesus about inheriting eternal life. Jesus loves him and tells him to sell all that he has, and give it to the poor. Then he will have treasure in heaven. The rich man walks away.

Ten Bridesmaids were invited to a wedding (Matthew 24). Five were wise & five were foolish. Missed opportunities makes God weep. Summer is on the horizon. May God grant us grace to be alert to times of urgency & opportunity!

Making the most of the time, and striking while the iron is hot, Pastor Dave
