

THE EMMANUEL EPISTLE

“Praising, Proclaiming and Practicing Emmanuel—God with us—in daily life!”

Pastor’s Keyboard: “Discipleship—A Word about HATE”

Christ is risen. Christ is risen indeed. It’s the season of Easter. It’s time for a little heart to heart conversation about hate. Is it possible to love Jesus while harboring hate in one’s heart? Hate has become a favorite word in the language of our culture. The word generally communicates excessive disdain or disgust toward, or for, someone or something. People often use (or misuse) the word “hate” indiscriminately. Accusations abound: “If you don’t agree with me or share my beliefs and values, then you must be a hateful person; unenlightened, phobic, & intolerant.” What parent doesn’t dread receiving from their child the verbal dagger: “I hate you!” Yes, hate can be a nasty, caustic word, or behavior.

There are some things that people actually love to hate. What is it that you hate, loathe, or abhor? Is it okay to hate those who practice hate? Don’t you just hate it when someone cuts you off in traffic, or refuses to let you merge from the on-ramp, and then adds insult to injury by giving you “the bird”?

“Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him.”
- 1 John 3:15

Don’t you just hate it when your favorite team loses a sporting competition and your arch rival wins? Don’t you just hate it when someone you detest is right, and you are proven to be wrong, forced to eat a little humble pie? Some people claim to hate certain foods, but I’m guessing that it’s simply a palatable distaste that may actually change over time. Some people hate what others love, and vice versa.

What does the Bible say about hate? Does the God of “steadfast love and mercy” sanction or practice hate? Ecclesiastes says that there is a season and a time for every matter under heaven, including “a time to love and a time to hate; a time for war and a time for peace” (3:8). The prophet Malachi reminds us that God hates divorce (2:16). The Psalmist says that God hates all evildoers (5:5), loathes the violent & wicked (11:5), and has disdain for the perverse (101:3). Proverbs says that God hates seven things because they are an

Food For Thought:

“Hate the sin and not the sinner’ is a precept which, though easy enough to understand, is rarely practiced, and that is why the poison of hatred spreads in the world.”

(1869 - 1948)

abomination to him (6:16-19). Those who love the Lord, hate evil (Psalm 97:10).

Jesus, the Prince of peace, appears to sanction hate. Speaking about the cost of discipleship, Jesus offers these disturbing words: "If anyone comes to me and does not hate his own father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple" (Luke 14:26); "You will be hated by all for my namesake" (Luke 21:17). Jesus is not advocating self-loathing or indiscriminate abhorrence of others. The word "hate" means "to love less". When St. Paul quotes Malachi 1:2-3, "Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated," (Romans 9:13), he is simply saying that God chose Jacob & didn't choose Esau.

In Indiana, Memories Pizza, owned by a Christian family, said that they wouldn't cater a same-sex wedding. Not because they hate gays, but because their Christian convictions say that marriage is ordained by God to be the union of one man and one woman. Lovingly standing up for their beliefs, they became the object of ridicule, hate and death threats. They had to go into hiding. In California, a different scenario is unfolding. The Oakland Athletics are set to hold the team's first ever LGBT Pride Night on June 17. After some season ticket holders reacted negatively to the gay-friendly event, A's pitcher Sean Doolittle & his girlfriend, Eireann Dolan offered to buy all unwanted tickets at face value; "No judgments. No questions asked." I like that. No labeling. No shaming. Just an honest acknowledgment that we don't all see things through the same glasses, so why be hateful?

Don't you just love it when people of different views actually embrace diversity and stop labeling and denigrating each other? Don't you just hate it when those advocating tolerance are so intolerant, and those condemning the beliefs and behaviors of others are so unloving toward those who disagree with them? —continued on page 4

That is what The Story is all about: the story of the Bible, God’s great love affair with humanity. Condensed into 31 accessible chapters, The Story sweeps participants into the unfolding progression of Bible characters & events from Genesis - Revelation. Like any good story, The Story is filled with intrigue, drama, conflict, romance, and redemption; & this story’s true!

Each story in these 31 chapters reveals the God of grace---the God who speaks; the God who acts; the God who listens; the God whose love for his people culminated in his sacrifice of Jesus, his only Son, to atone for the sins of humanity." Read the Story & experience the Bible.

SAVE THE DATE!

Christmas With Emmanuel!

Join us as we celebrate the birth of our Lord on Thursday, December 24 at 4:00 p.m. at Oasis Church. Invite your family and friends to join us for Christmas Eve Worship.

Disciples need to be careful how they use or abuse the word “hate” lest they practice the very thing they despise. “Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him” (I John 3:15). God hates sin, but God loves sinners. God hates sin so much that He sends His only Son Jesus into our world where He is hated & crucified on a cross for the forgiveness of our sins (John 3:16). By His stripes we are healed. We are healed to hate sin & to love sinners. “

I hate fornication, adultery, drunkenness, child abuse, domestic violence, abortion, capital punishment and war. But I love adulterers, drunks, abusers, murderers, and evildoers. I hate sin, but I love sinners. There are things that I legitimately, discriminately hate, so please don't hate me for loving Jesus and practicing my faith.

It's the Season of Easter. God has a word for us about hate. Jesus delivers it: “Love your enemies, & pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be children of your Father who is in heaven” (Matthew 5:44f). There are things that God hates (Proverbs 6:16-19), and so must we. “Don't be surprised that the world hates you,” Jesus declares (I John 3:13). It hated Jesus too (John 15:18). But even if others do hate you, love them in return...in the name of Jesus.

—Hating sin & evil, but loving sinners, Pastor Dave
