

The Emmanuel Epistle

“Praising, Proclaiming and Practicing Emmanuel—God with us—in daily life!”

Pastor’s Keyboard: “Discipleship: “Preaching the Gospel”

Timothy George, Dean of Beeson Divinity School, writes, “At the heart of the Christian faith stands a Savior who was a preacher. ‘And Jesus came preaching’ (Mark 1:14). Jesus once declared that the very purpose of his mission on earth was to preach: ‘I must proclaim the Good News of the kingdom of God to the other towns also, because that is why I was sent,’ and he kept on preaching ...” (Luke 4:43-44a).

The WORD becomes flesh when God speaks. A new creation is given birth when the Gospel is heard, by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone.

Connections. “It’s not what you know, but who you know.” Right connections can make all the difference in the world, & in eternity. Right connections can bring blessing and abundant life. Wrong connections can bring heartache and death. St. Paul writes, “In Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive”—I Cor. 15:22. “The wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord”—Romans 6:23. Connections matter! Grace alone! Faith alone! Scripture alone.

Christ alone!

One of my favorite hymns bespeaks the TRUTH: “In Christ alone, who took on flesh, fullness of God in helpless babe! This gift of love and righteousness, scorned by the ones he came to save. Till on that cross as Jesus died, the wrath of God was satisfied; for every sin on him was laid, here in the death of Christ I live!”

“The gospel is not a doctrine of the tongue, but of life. It cannot be grasped by reason and memory only, but it is fully understood when it possesses the whole soul and penetrates to the inner recesses of the heart.”

—John Calvin

Yes in Christ alone, my hope—your hope—our hope is found! In Christ alone! This is the Gospel, the WORD of God which must be preached! How beautiful are the feet of those who preach good news.

St. Paul, unashamedly, preached Christ crucified. We, unapologetically, preach the folly of the cross. Each year in the month of October, Lutherans remember & celebrate the Protestant Reformation. Martin Luther posted the 95 theses on the Castle Church door in Wittenberg, Germany on the eve of All Saints, October 31, 1517.

False teaching had crept into the institutional church and Luther refused to turn a blind eye to sin and evil. Bad teaching & preaching will inevitably lead to bad, corrupt, & immoral living. Believing and behaving are connected; inseparable.

Tetzel & others were selling indulgences as though salvation could be purchased apart from the merits of Christ. Tetzel preached bad faith: “A coin in the coffer rings & a soul from purgatory springs.” In Thesis 62, Luther reminds —Continued on page 3

Food For Thought:

“The Holy Scriptures call Christians saints and the people of God. It’s a pity that it’s forgotten that we are saints, for to forget this is to forget Christ.”

us that the true treasure of the church is the gospel of Jesus Christ. Given the Reformation's central focus on the gospel, it would be a mistake to celebrate the Reformation in any other way than by proclaiming the gospel.

The particularity of the Gospel is what Luther referred to as the "FOR YOU"-ness of Jesus. "For our sake God made Him to be sin, who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God." Welcome to the new creation. Faith comes by hearing and what is heard comes through the preaching of Christ alone. If we confess with our mouths that Jesus is LORD and believe in our hearts that God raised him from the dead, we will be saved! Luther writes, to proclaim the gospel, therefore, is to bestow Christ with all his work on the believer. It is to invite the person to believe that "Christ himself, with his deeds and suffering, belongs to you," in a manner that is utterly dependable, "as if you had done it yourself; indeed as if you were Christ himself" (Luther's Works 35:119).

Connections matter. Connections make all the difference. The devil is the father of all lies. The devil masquerades himself as an angel of light. Jesus is the TRUTH, the only begotten Son of the Father. Jesus declares, "The Father and I are one." Question: "Who's your father?" Connections matter. Jesus is the True Vine. We are his branches. "Apart from me," Jesus preaches, "You can do nothing." Abiding, remaining in Jesus produces abundant fruit to the glory of God. Abiding means keeping the commandments of God, joyful living and answered prayer.

Connections matter. "It's not what you know, but who you know." Knowing Jesus is more than an accumulation of cognitive information. Knowing Jesus is a daily death and resurrection relationship; daily dying and rising in the good news of forgiveness in the name of Jesus. "For we are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we might walk in them." "We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his." Connections matter. Jesus is our righteousness. His grace is our gospel gait! Thanks for preaching the good news!

Staying Connected, Pastor Dave

Guest Musicians for Special Services of Worship at Emmanuel

One of the priorities identified in our recent Emmanuel visioning process is: "Growing the worship life of our congregation without compromising our core values & beliefs". We are fortunate to have friends, and friends of friends, who are gifted musicians eager to share the love of Jesus in worship through the offering of their musical talent. On Feast Days (Reformation, All Saints, Christmas, etc.) it is wonderful to have added gifts of music in worship. If you, or someone you know, are interested in sharing a musical offering, or a providing funding for such gifts of music, please contact Pastor.
