Then Peter came up and said to him, “Lord, how often will my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? As many as seven times?” Jesus said to him, “I do not say to you seven times, but seventy-seven times. “Therefore the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his servants. When he began to settle, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. And since he could not pay, his master ordered him to be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and payment to be made. So the servant fell on his knees, imploring him, ‘Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.’ And out of pity for him, the master of that servant released him and forgave him the debt.

Jesus said that we must forgive others
many, many times a day.

Children's Worship Pages

In a parable, Jesus taught that since God forgives us, we should forgive others.

Draw pictures to tell the story.

A king forgave a servant who owed him a lot of money.

The man found someone who owed him money and made him pay it back!

The king was angry with the man who wouldn't forgive the debt.

The king decided to put the unforgiving servant in jail.

Peter has an important question for Jesus. What is he asking? And how does Jesus answer? Fill in the missing words to find out!

Lord, how many times must I _____ a person who sins against me? Seven times?

Not seven times, but seventy times seven! That's how often you must _____.

(Check Matthew 18:21-22 to find the missing words).

Write the following numbers as numerical symbols in the chart below.
