Lecture on Isaiah 9:6

"The Son of God did not want to be seen and found in heaven. Therefore He descended into this humility and came to us in our flesh, laid Himself into the womb of His mother & into the manger and went to the cross. This is the ladder that He placed on earth so that we might ascend to God on it. This is the way you must take."

Prayers for Christmas Eve

A: Rejoicing with the angels and all who came to the manger in Bethlehem at the nativity of our Lord Jesus, let us pray for the whole church, for all those in need, and for all of God's creation.

A brief silence

A: Holy and mighty God, your Word comes to your people in many ways. With great joy we celebrate today the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ, your Word Incarnate, whom you sent to redeem your people from the wrath of sin. We pray that all people may come to know the meaning of His birth and experience the joy of salvation through Christ alone. Lord, in your mercy,

C: Hear our prayer.

A: In the field outside of Bethlehem the shepherds heard the joyful message of the Angels, and they went to Bethlehem to see Jesus. Give us the faith and the courage to follow and share with our neighbors the joy and peace that comes from believing that Jesus came to redeem us and all the world. Grant that we may be your Christmas angels. Lord, in your mercy,

C: Hear our prayer.

A: Your Son came to bring healing to those in need. As we celebrate the birth of our Lord, we ask for your healing hand upon those who are in need of healing; especially those we name before you now (names). May the confidence that you care for them be a sign of hope and strength. Lord, in your mercy,

C: Hear our prayer.

A: As families and friends join in celebrations at this time of the year, we remember those whose service to communities, and our nation, keep them from their loved ones. We pray for the safety of members of our military services, police and fire departments, medical personnel, and those who work for the safety, health, and well-being of others. Lord, in your mercy,

C: Hear our prayer.

A: We pray for brothers and sisters in the faith, whose joy at Christ's birth is tempered with the sadness they experience at the death of family members and friends. Sustain them with the certainty that the birth of Jesus brings new life in Christ here on earth, and life with all the faithful in eternity. Lord, in your mercy,

C: Hear our prayer.

P: Into your hands, Merciful Father, we commend all for whom we pray, trusting in your mercy, for the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

C: Amen.

Scripture Readings

Isaiah 9:2-7

2 The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who dwelt in a land of deep darkness, on them has light shone. 3 You have multiplied the nation; you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as they are glad when they divide the spoil. 4 For the yoke of his burden, and the staff for his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian. 5 For every boot of the tramping warrior in battle tumult and every garment rolled in blood will be burned as fuel for the fire. 6 For to us a child is born, to us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder, and his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. 7 Of the increase of his government and of peace there will be no end, on the throne of David and over his kingdom, to establish it and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time forth and forevermore. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.

Titus 2:11-14

11 For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, 12 training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, 13 waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, 14 who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works.
