

Listening for the Promise—SOLA Weekly Devotional

“When he has brought out all his own, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice.” - John 10:4

There is great power in a voice. A voice that shouts can bring numerous conversations to a pause. A shout can startle an unsuspecting individual. A soothing voice may bring calm to the screaming child. Voices are familiar and that familiarity gets our attention. For example, in public I often hear someone shout, “Dad.” I don’t look every time because I know that I am not the one being called. However, when I recognize the word “dad” coming from my son, I know that I am the one whose attention he is seeking.

A voice can also trigger in our minds whether the person speaking is a person we trust. That is one of the issues present in today’s gospel reading. Jesus’ voice is one that the sheep know and trust. Sheep trust the Shepherd with their very lives, expecting the Shepherd to protect them, feed and care for them. Sheep will follow the Shepherd to green pastures and beside still waters (Psalm 23:2). Not all who come to the sheep have their well-being in mind. There are those who willingly or unwillingly lead the sheep to slaughter. We see this today among those false teachers who reject Scriptural teaching and follow the values of the world. Indeed, false teachers play into the susceptibility of those with itching ears who “will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own passions...” (2 Timothy 4:3).

Of course, Jesus is no ordinary shepherd. Jesus is the Good Shepherd. Jesus loves the sheep so much that he lays down his life for the sheep. (John 10:11). Jesus, by his very identity provides for the sheep’s every need. In addition to being the Good Shepherd we know Jesus in these ways:

- I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me shall not hunger, and whoever believes in me shall never thirst. – John 6:35
- I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life. – John 8:12
- I am the resurrection and the life. - John 11:17

Follow the voice of the Lord, for he is faithful and has given us all that is needed for abundant life now and in the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers

A: Let us pray to our Risen Savior on behalf of the Church, the world, and all people according to their need.

A brief silence

A: Thank you, Jesus, for being our Good Shepherd – even though we balk at being compared to sheep! Thank you for giving us abundant life, even as we walk through death-shadowed valleys. Thank you for knowing us by name, even though we sometimes forget yours. Claim us & guide us every day, in spite of ourselves, until we are safely in your house forever. Lord, in your mercy,

C: Hear our prayer.

A: You are the Good Shepherd. Defend the Church from peril, provide for its needs, and lead it in paths of righteousness. Through its ministry, lead many to hear your voice and follow you. Lord, in your mercy,

C: Hear our prayer.

A: .You are the Good Shepherd of this congregation. Lead us with your Word. Prepare our table with your Body and Blood. Teach us to do your will with glad and faithful hearts. And use us to lead many into your safe keeping. Lord, in your mercy,

C: Hear our prayer.

A: You are the Gate of your sheep. Protect the people of every nation from false shepherds; from rulers who care nothing for their welfare; and from all the threatening dangers of this world. Bring peace in places of violence; rich pasture in places of poverty; and true righteousness in places of injustice. Lord, in your mercy,

C: Hear our prayer.

A: You are the Good Shepherd who leads us through dark valleys shadowed by suffering. Be the strong Guide and sure comfort of all who call upon you, especially during these frightening days of COVID-19. Be with those we name before you [NAMES]. Fill them with your abundant life; keep them steadfast in faith; and strengthen and bless all who care for them. Lord, in your mercy,

C: Hear our prayer.

P: We praise and magnify you, dear Jesus. Accept our prayers and lay them at the feet of your Father, who with you and the Holy Spirit reigns gloriously as our Lord and our God, now and forever.

Acts 2:42-47 — Faith Practices in the Early Church

42 [The believers] devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers. 43 And awe came upon every soul, and many wonders and signs were being done through the apostles. 44 And all who believed were together and had all things in common. 45 And they were selling their possessions and belongings and distributing the proceeds to all, as any had need. 46 And day by day, attending the temple together and breaking bread in their homes, they received their food with glad and generous hearts, 47 praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to their number day by day those who were being saved.

L: The Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 23—responsively

L: The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

C: He makes me lie down in green pastures.

L: He leads me beside still waters. He restores my soul.

C: He leads me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

L: Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil,

C: For you are with me; your rod & your staff, they comfort me.

L: You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;

C: You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

L: Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me all the days of my life,

C: And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

I Peter 2:19-25 — Suffering for Righteousness Sake

19 For this is a gracious thing, when, mindful of God, one endures sorrows while suffering unjustly. 20 For what credit is it if, when you sin and are beaten for it, you endure? But if when you do good and suffer for it you endure, this is a gracious thing in the sight of God. 21 For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps. 22 He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth. 23 When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly. 24 He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. 25 For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd & Overseer of your souls.

L: The Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading: John 10:1-10

L: The Holy Gospel according to St. John the 10th. Chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

1 [Jesus said to the Jews,] “Truly, truly, I say to you, he who does not enter the sheepfold by the door but climbs in by another way, that man is a thief and a robber. 2 But he who enters by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. 3 To him the gatekeeper opens. The sheep hear his voice, and he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. 4 When he has brought out all his own, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. 5 A stranger they will not follow, but they will flee from him, for they do not know the voice of strangers.” 6 This figure of speech Jesus used with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them. 7 So Jesus again said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep. 8 All who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them. 9 I am the door. If anyone enters by me, he will be saved and will go in & out and find pasture. 10 The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly.”

L: The Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.
