“Praising, Proclaiming and Practicing Emmanuel—God with us—in daily life!”

Pastor’s Keyboard: “Discipleship: Tracing the Rainbow”

Do you like rainbows? They often adorn church nurseries or church preschools. What about the Irish cereal, “Lucky Charms?” They’re magically delicious. Perhaps you enjoy the Wizard of Oz, and these lyrics: “Somewhere over the rainbow, way up high; There’s a land that I’ve heard of once in a lullaby. Somewhere over the rainbow, skies are blue; And the dreams that you dare to dream, really do come true.”

Do you like rainbows? I do! What about a double rainbow? A double rainbow is considered a symbol of transformation and is a sign of good fortune, prosperity & luck in eastern cultures. Is there a pot of gold at the end of a rainbow? Do our dreams really come true?

In the Bible, God offers the rainbow as a sign of hope & promise. In Genesis 6-9, God commissions Noah to build an Ark. Why? “Now the earth was corrupt in the sight of God, and the earth was filled with violence. And God looked on the earth, and behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted their way upon the earth” A massive flood (deluge) destroys a wicked and corrupt creation. The Flood becomes God’s means by which evil is judged and destroyed. The Ark becomes God’s means by which a righteous remnant is saved; namely Noah & his family.

“Grant that this child be kept safe and secure in the holy ark of the Christian Church.”

*—from Luther’s
Baptismal Prayer*

The Ark was an incredible vessel, 450 feet in length, 75 feet wide, and 45 feet high. It would serve to save both man & animals. After the Flood ended, the LORD made a solemn promise: “I will never again curse the ground on account of man, for the intent of man’s heart is evil from his youth; and I will never again destroy every living thing, as I have done. While the earth remains, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease.”

While unbelievers found judgment, Noah found favor and grace. The LORD hung up his BOW (literally an instrument of war) as a sign that GOD would save His people through the watery grave of His Son’s death and resurrection. Jesus, the Living Water, would become the source of God’s new Creation, and our being born again!

In Genesis 9:15, God promises that when He looks upon the rainbow, that He will remember: “I will remember My covenant that is between Me and you & every living creature of all flesh.”

Pastor Jesse A. Burns \(IA\) writes, “The connection between the salvation given to the human race in the flood and the eternal salvation distributed in holy baptism cannot be overlooked. St. Peter writes, ‘God’s patience waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was being prepared, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were brought safely through water. Baptism, which corresponds to this, now saves you...’ (1 Peter 3:20-21). ... This sign should remind us to give thanks to God. For as often as the rainbow appears, it preaches to the entire world with a loud voice about the wrath which once moved God to destroy the whole world. It also gives comfort, that we may have the conviction that God is kindly inclined toward us again and will never again make use of so horrible a punishment. Thus it teaches the fear of God and faith at the same time, the greatest virtues.”

The Season of Lent is fast approaching. Ash Wednesday is February 17. On the cross, the wrath of God is satisfied and the promise spoken in Genesis 3:15 is fulfilled. Jesus is the Promised Seed. In the Flood, we see the wrath of God over sin, but we also see that God is merciful and provides salvation. In the Flood Waters of Holy Baptism, sinners are brought safely into the ark of the Holy Christian Church where they receive God’s gift of salvation in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

In my first call right out of seminary (1983), I inherited a deep love for Gospel hymnody. The good folks in Lake Lillian, MN introduced me to a hymn entitled, “O Love That Will Not Let Me Go.” The hymn is a creed for me. The lyrics include these words: “O Joy, that seekest me through pain, I cannot close my heart to Thee; I trace the rainbow through the rain, and feel the promise is not vain, that morn shall tearless be.” Daily God invites us to cling to His Son, claim the solemn promise, and put our baptism into practice as we trace the rainbow through the rain. The promise is not vain. Morn shall tearless be! I love rainbows!

George Matheson was inspired by God (like a dayspring from on high) to write this beloved hymn on the evening of June 6, 1882. It was composed in less than 5 minutes. Each of the four stanzas begins with a key word—Love, Light, Joy & Cross—that are not only attributes of his relationship with Christ, but also names given to Christ. Love is a haven for a “weary soul” and is as deep as the “ocean.” The second stanza focuses on Light that illumines the way of the singer. Our “flickering torch” is augmented by the “sunshine’s blaze” of Christ, the Light of the world. Stanza three is one of Joy—a joy that seeks for us “through pain.” The “rainbow” is a promise of hope following the rain indicating that “morn shall tearless be.” The Cross is the theme of the concluding stanza. Through Christ’s suffering on the cross “blossoms red” are formed that lead to the birth of new life.” Though nearly blind by age 18, George Matheson became a brilliant student at Glasgow University. He never married, & his sister learned Greek, Latin & Hebrew to help him through his theological studies. She also helped with his pastoral responsibilities.

“O Cross that liftest up my head, I dare not ask to fly from thee; I lay in dust life’s glory dead, And from the ground there blossoms red, Life that shall endless be.” In the Spirit, St. John beholds the ONE seated on the heavenly throne, Jesus, the Lamb who was slain and has begun His reign. St. John writes, “And He who sat there had the appearance of jasper and carnelian, and around the throne was a rainbow that had the appearance of an emerald” (Revelation 4:3). Yes, “we trace the rainbow through the rain and know the promise is not vain, that morn shall tearless be.”

I AM sealed by the Holy Spirit and marked with the Cross of Christ forever, Pastor Dave
